a means to what end?

Judging by tactics used in calling a recent meeting at Washington School, and in conducting that meeting, the group sponsoring the meeting believes that the end justifies the means. If the "end" they have in mind is to improve education throughout the district, and create smaller class size, and equalize education in all schools, the means used may actually destroy their intended result. The most obvious results of the meeting were that several tenuous relationships between human beings were broken, several working relationships made tenuous, and hostility reigned supreme. Hostility ruled the approach of the group to every problem, and it spread. It spread to some children, even, who in turn spelled it out by crude name-calling on school walls, and tire-slashing. It spread to the heart and stomach of every sensitive person in the audience. The end result, if people continue to talk at, instead of to each other, may very well never occur. But one of the side results could very well be the phasing out of our beloved school. If people refuse to work together, it could happen. One wry speculation as to the future use of the school was its transformation into the New Rambler's Clubhouse ---Not funny? Okay, so don't laugh!

The Washington PTA invites everyone to a family spaghetti dinner, on September 24, at Washington School. Come and get acquainted.

VERY SPECIAL DAYS

★ FLAG DAY

Sunday -- June 14th, is Flag Day.

The United States flag originated as the result of a resolution offered by the Maritime Committee of the Second Continental Congress at Philadelphia and adopted June 14, 1777.

The action of Congress was first made public in September, 1777. John Paul Jones may have raised the flag when he took command of the Ranger of the Continental Navy at Portsmouth, N.H., July 12, 1777. There is no evidence that Washington ever raised the Stars and Stripes over the American Revolution, or that it was ever flown on the battlefields, or when Washington was crossing the Delaware. From the evidence, Washington did not get the "Standard of the United States" until 1783, when the war was over.

A flag code for civilians was adopted on June 14, 1923, by a conference of patriotic organizations in Washington.

★ CHILDREN'S DAY

"Children's Day" is Sunday -- also, falling on the second Sunday of June. However, in no reference books can we find "Children's Day". It appears on a small calendar, and it must have originated as a result of the beginning of Summer School Vacation, however, we really don't know. Anyway, kids, happy Children's Day!

★ PANCAKE DAY

Tomorrow, June 13, Saturday, is great "Pancake Day" -- Point Richmond's very own special day, provided by Boy Scout Troop 111, and continuing from 5 a.m. to noon at the First Methodist Church. The most terrific pancakes in town (a secret recipe that has never been duplicated is used) are served, along with bacon, ham, juice, eggs, coffee, etc., etc. You are all invited to come and help celebrate "Pancake Day" in Point Richmond!

FARM FAIR

Bluegrass music, square dancing in the meadow and craft demonstrations of all kinds are only a few of the dozens of activities planned for the second annual Farm Fair at Tilden Park.

Sponsored by the Interpretive Department of the East Bay Regional Park District the fair offers free old-time fun for young and old, and begins at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 13 at the Little Farm in the Tilden Park Nature Area....right after the pancake breakfast.

Everyone is being urged to wear farm-type clothes, and small prizes will be awarded for almost everything.

Special recognition and prizes will be offered in the baking contest, and after the judging "the goodies will be cut up and passed around to the assembled multitudes.

In addition to sheep shearing, weaving and dyeing demonstrations, there will be pottery, leatherworking and railsplitting exhibitions.

Puppet shows, featuring Lester Litterbug and other villains and heroes, will enliven the proceedings, along with a variety of games and contests. The popular sack races and tug-o-war will be on the schedule, and this year frustrated woodsmen can participate in a bucksawing contest.

For further information, phone Tilden Nature Area Office, 524-1034.

A LOT OF BULLDOZERS

In case you're looking for a bulldozer or a "caterpillar ripper" -- just the thing for a backyard sculpture -- the East Bay Regional Park District will be auctioning off seven pieces of equipment on Tuesday, June 16. The construction equipment is stored at the Tilden Regional Park Corporation Yard, and may be seen before the auction.

SUMMER COLLEGE

Registration, by appointment only, for summer classes at Contra Costa College will take place June 16 and 17. Classes begin on June 22. Call 235-2583 for information.

3. Sundays in the country

Sundays outdoor in the country can have a special charm this summer.... Donald Pippin, well-known musical director in the Bay Area, who has presented the popular concerts at the Old Spaghetti Factory in San Francisco, will come out into the daylight of the outdoor theater in Port Costa, to give some Sunday afternoon concerts!

Music for the Baroque Theater will be presented June 21, and will include Telemann's "Don Quixote" Suite and Purcell's music for "The Tempest."

Music of Russia will be presented on July 12, including Moussorgsky's parody cantata, "The Puppet Theater" and Stravinski's "L'Histoire du Soldat."

Bartok's opera, "Bluebeard's Castle" will be given on July 26.

Sand Castle contest

The annual Sand Castle Contest will be held Saturday, June 20 at Alameda Memorial Beach Park. Either Sand Castles or Sand Sculptures may be made, by groups or families. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded to the best sculptures and castles.

Smokey the Bear will be on hand to pass out comic books and Smokey Bear pins, and children of all ages are invited.

Last Events of SCHOOL

The last days of school were accompanied by parties, awards assemblies, etc.

At Washington, one of the highlights of the end-of-school activities was the delightful presentation of the "Washington School Kid Kapers", directed by Mrs. Barbara Politeau. An original, and up-dated version of "Cinderella" was performed, as well as between-act entertainment.

Two performances of the "Kapers" were given, and in the cast of "Cinderella" were Sharon Jackson, Pamela Johnson, Kerry

Lattier, Isabel Austria, Jennie Allaire, Melissa Martincich, Mike Pair, Ronald Van Hook, John Green, John Holmes, Curtis Mills, Michelle Dunkley and Virginia Ferguson and Cathy Enyeart.

In the jazz band that provided guest entertainment were Mike Politeau, Ronnie Ramos, Rickey Ramos, Jeff Glibas, and Craig Frost. A recorder duet was presented by Terrie Wralstead, and Monica Johnson.

The Awards Assembly took place a few days before school's end, and we do not have all the recipients' names. However, the Principal's Award was given to Kerry Lattier and Jenny Allaire.

And, at Roosevelt, students were saying the very last goodbyes to Roosevelt as a Junior High School. Some of them will meet again at Downer Junior High, and some at Ells High School. The last day was generally spent in getting autographs, and doing things in the classroom that hadn't been allowed during the school year. Everyone had a great time before they said good-bye to their school.

Sunday DISCUSSION

by Karen Fenton

Last Sunday a discussion was held at the Point Richmond Community Center on the topic, "Why is America Involved in South-East Asia?" Three speakers were present representing the Young Republicans, Committee of Concerned Asian Scholars and Veterans for Peace. The audience was disappointingly small and tended to express only one viewpoint.

It is interesting to assess the reasons for the poor response. The war in Vietnam has dragged on a long time and is taken for granted. Most people have long ago formulated their viewpoints on the war. The war plays a minor role in their day-to-day lives. People feel that they are individually uninfluential in expressing their opinions. Consequently, attempts at community discussion fall flat because people are unwilling to expend energy on what they consider a waste of time. (page 5, please)

5. Sunday Discussion (cont. from p. 3)

Moreover, talking about the war with others who disagree is generally very unpleasant, so that it is avoided as much as possible.

There is one major justification for discussions about the war attended by people of differing viewpoints. Not that they will change one another's views, but that they will face the fact that they disagree and will seek other points of agreement. The citizens of our country are becoming so polarized, each side fearing its basic values in life threatened by the other side, each side hating the other. Much of this fear and hate would be allayed if people tried to talk with each other.

This Sunday three young men who recently served in Vietnam and now live in Point Richmond will share their experiences. Their views about the war differ greatly. Everyone is invited to listen. Sunday, June 21, at 8 p.m., at the Point Richmond Community Center.

Girls from 8 to 11 years of age, who wish to learn basic tumbling skills and rhythmic gymnastics can enjoy the convenience of a summer class that will be conducted at the Richmond Plunge!

Mondays and Wednesdays, at the Plunge, from 2:30 to 3:30, the Richmond Recreation and Parks Department is offering 12 lessons for only $3.00

Enrollment will be limited, and registration will take place at the Plunge on June 16, 17 and 18, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and on June 20 and 21, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Classes continue from June 22 to July 29. For further information, please contact Jean Wieben at 232-1212, extension 496.

Parents must sign the registration blank, so either get one before the registration days or accompany your child so that you may sign the form.

SWIMMING FUN

Plunge registration will begin on June 16 and continue for three days, for special classes. You may register from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on these days.

Besides public swimming, classes are held for tiny tots, for families, and for special skills as synchronized swimming. Also, free lessons are available for youth from 6 to 15 years. These are in two-week sessions, with daily (Monday to Friday) lessons. For further information, call the plunge at 234-8202 or the Recreation and Parks Department at 232-1212, ext. 496.

If you have summer guests, the usual tour for those new to the Bay Area includes Sausalito. This time, when you visit, whether by yourself or with guests, visit the new Sausalito Art Center. It is located at the corner of Nevada and Buchanan streets, in the old Bayside School.

Exhibits of local artists, in the artist-filled community may be enjoyed, as well as multi-media performances of concerts, plays, etc.

For information about exhibits and events, you may call 332-4475.

The big Sausalito Art Festival will be held over the Labor Day weekend.

★ From June 11 to 14, the Oakland Antique show and sale will be held at the Claremont Hotel from noon to 9 p.m.

★ On June 13 and 14, The Outdoor Art Show will be held at Lake Merritt.

★ Also on June 13 and 14, the Upper Grant Avenue Street Fair will be in progress.

★ From June 15 to 27, the Solano County Fair will be held at Vallejo. Horse racing and Rodeos will be featured.

Letters

[TO WRITE]

Of Course, you will have time on your hands, now that summer vacation has come. Right? Okay, then this is the time to "take a few letters".....

Quoting Samuel Adams, who in 1771 said, "Let us contemplate our forefathers and posterity, and resolve to maintain the rights bequeathed to us from the former, for the sake of the latter," the "People for Open Space" ask for help in supporting SB 1400 , a bill by Senator Marks, that will establish a two-year Bay Area Open Space Commission, similar to the BCDC, to formulate a plan and report back to the legislature in 1972 with the results of their study, and the action necessary to maintain enough open space land in this area. "Open Space Action", a coalition of conservationists in the Bay Area, has formed for the sole purpose of getting this bill passed, and saving some open space. They of course need funds, but they also need people who will write letters, circulate petitions, etc. Letters should go to all Bay Area legislators, asking that SB 1400 receive their support.

Letters are also needed to support the League of Women voter's request of the East Bay Municipal Utility District that they include the problem of solid waste disposal in their studies of water quality for the Bay Area. On the Board of Directors of EBMUD are the following people: Mr. W.D. McNevin, 1236 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, 94549. Mr. Dewitt W. Krueger, 24 Crest Estates Dr., Walnut Creek, 94529; Mr. A.C. Carrington, 2984 Northwood Dr., Alameda, 94501; Mr. G. Howard Robinson, 190 Estates Dr., Piedmont, 94611 and Mr. Robert T. Nahas, 44 Farragut Ave., Piedmont, 94611.

And, if you still have the time left to write a few more letters, a plea from Assemblyman Knox , regarding the BCDC's attempt to keep the Navy from filling the Bay should be heeded. Letters and telegrams to President Richard M. Nixon, as Commander in Chief , and John Hubbard, Secretary of the Navy are needed to obtain a hearing on the issue of the Navy's attempt to bypass the BCDC's jurisdiction over Bay fill.

HOUSECLEANING?

The Contra Costa YWCA can use material help for summer projects....craft supplies, which includes everything from buttons to broken jewelry, pipe cleaners to paper plates, dixie cups to popsicle sticks, and aerosol can lids to old candles.

They also need used games, miscellaneous supplies for games and swimming, and reading materials; and camping equipment of all kinds.

Think of them when you do your summer cleaning,, and you may also bring aluminum cans for recycling to the "Y" at 3230 Macdonald Avenue. (Please flatten cans).

PREPARE !

Don't forget -- preparations are being made for the Old Fashioned Family Fourth of July Festival in Point Richmond, add you can participate by offering help in booths, by baking cakes or pies, contributing white elephants, etc. Call Point Counterpoint if you are willing to help in any way.....and Artists, don't forget the Art Exhibit area, and if interested, call Betty Kelly at 527 - 0911.

HOW TO COMMUNICATE

Kaiser Aluminum News publishes some fascinating magazines. One recent issue, "Communications" delves deeply, but concisely into the problems of communication, and why accurate communication is so difficult. An interesting set of rules which they call a catechism for understanding things one reads or hears... and it consists of the following set of questions :

1. WHO said so? (Don't accept "they" or "a company official" or "someone close to the ---")

2. WHAT did he say? (What someone says he "thinks" someone else said is probably wrong; forget it.)

3. What did he MEAN? (If you are talking to someone directly, asking some questions may help. If he's not around, then possibly what he meant cannot be established; but in asking the question, you at least make it clear to yourself that he may not mean what you think he does.

4. HOW does he know? (Is he an expert? Was he there? What are his sources of information?)

One example of clear (but misinterpreted) communication is the simple conversation:

"Time flies".

"You can't. They fly too fast."

Nancy Weirick Greenberg visited her parents last weekend. She came home for the funeral of her uncle, M. M. Silvis, a 45-year resident of Richmond.

A "Yankee-Doodle" wedding will be a part of Point Richmond's celebrating on the Fourth of July. Dan Robertson and Thea Kendall have chosen the Fourth of July as their wedding date.

Harold Vaughn is home from the hospital.

Floyd Scalberg ("the governor") is in Brookside Hospital under observation.

Happy birthday to Charles Wright ("Indian Charlie").

Participating in a recent piano recital were the following young pianists: Lori Ferguson, Tina Garcia, Bryan Smith, Georgette Austria, Bettina Gearlds, Allan Smith, Erin Evans and Isabel Austria.

Guests who also played were former students Roberta Dornan and Romi Roselius. The recital took place at the home of Mrs. Roselius, their teacher, and was enjoyed by friends and relatives of the students, with about forty people attending. Violinist Julie Lesea also took part in the recital, with her student, Jodi Roselius. After the musical program, everyone created their own ice cream sundaes.

This week's nominee for "Ice Cream Hero of the Week" are Joan and Robert Cone, for making 250 phone calls for Gene Swann and doing precinct work for George Brown. Nominations may be turned in at the Old Firehouse Ice Cream parlor.

The Contra Costa Section of the National Council of Negro Women is holding the Western Regional Conference on June 25 through 28 at the Holiday Inn in Richmond with the theme, "Strategies for the Seventies; Black Community Arena For Action."

Miss Dorothy I. Height, National President of the group, currently holds appointments on the President's advisory Council on the Status of Women, the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, the United States Information Agency, Advisory Council on Minority Women, Women in Community Service, Inc., and the Women's Committee of the Office of Emergency Planning.

With emphasis on welfare rights, civil rights and consumer protection, housing, jobs and drug addiction, the Contra Costa Section President, Mrs. Mildred Germany, welcomes the members and visitors who may want to participate in the conference activities. Mrs. Germany may be contacted at P.O. Box 1095, Richmond, 94802, or 232-2834.

As a prelude to the conference, Mrs.

Francis M. Flippin, National Liaison to the Women in Community Service, Inc., will hold a workshop for interested Bay Area residents.

WICS is a group of women volunteers of many backgrounds who will get together to help girls break out of the cycle of poverty. It was organized by Church Women United, National Council of Catholic Women, National Council of Negro Women and the American G.I. Forum (Auxiliary member).

This broadly representative group was brought together by a common concern over monetary problems of America's youth, the school dropouts, the jobless, the delinquents, the impoverished young people who face the future with no goals and no hope.

WICS volunteers are currently engaged in a program to help the government recruit and screen girls for Job Corps enrollment and to provide support services to the young women before, during and after their training.

Interested participants should contact Mrs. Mildred Germany, 232 - 2834.

The "Community Summer Fun Club" will be held in two-week sessions, and children may sign up for from one to four sessions. Activities include swimming, in a big "Port-A-Pool", special trips, crafts, and maybe even movie making. The two-week sessions begin June 29, and will take place at Roosevelt Junior High, from Monday to Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Cost per child is $12 for each two-week session. The cost includes qualified leadership, daily accident insurance, trip insurance, trip expense, program supplies, daily drink and "port-a-pool" swim lessons. For registration forms, call the "Y" at 234-1270, or pick one up at 3230 Macdonald Avenue.

Legislative Summary

● For people interested in but confused by all the new environmental legislation, the Planning and Conservation League has published a summary of the legislation. The league supports the only conservation lobbyist in Sacramento, John Zierold, and it is supported by both conservation groups and individuals. The league may be contacted at 909-12th Street, Sacramento California. Dues are 10 dollars.

"Know your Bay Area"

Public hearings are held by numerous regional agencies which have jurisdiction over our environment. Often, notices come out too short a time before meeting dates to be of value to the public. Therefore the League of Women Voters of the Bay Area have published a new booklet, "Know Your Bay Area", which is meant to familiarize students and adults with these agencies. It may be obtained from any League office, or from Mrs. Robert E. Lawson, 1398 Wright Ave., Sunnyvale, Ca. for one dollar plus 25cents postage.

Ravencliff summer

YMCA's Camp Ravencliff opens on July 6th. Plans are being made for its opening, with a total of four two-week sessions, from July 6 to 20, July 20 to August 3, August 3 to 17, and August 17 to 31.

Director of the first session will be Bill Frank, with Dave Stelle as Assistant Director. Bill has been at "Y" Camp for 13 years and has served as everything from truck driver to cook to Director of the Adventure Club. He is now the Building Program Director at the "Y" in Richmond.

Dave Stelle, a teacher at Pinole Jr. High, has served in the Peace Corps, as Leader in YMCA Camp, and as a camp Counselor. He will be director for the second session, assisted by Randy Stamme, a Contra Costa College student. Third Session will be directed by George Gleason, who has taught at Adams Jr. High, and now teaches in the state of Washington.

The last session at Ravencliff will be in charge of Den Denning, assisted by Tim Outman. Denning, a past camp director, is Minister to Youth at the First Presbyterian Church.

Anyone interested in Camp should call the "Y" at 234-1270.

What's a Mother to do?

(From the Christian Science Monitor)

One hundred and thirty thousand mothers have joined "Another Mother for Peace," a non-profit, nonpartisan association whose goal is to eliminate war as a means of settling disputes between nations, peoples and ideologies. Their logo, "War is not healthy for children and other living things," can be found on key chains, bumper stickers, posters and medallions.

The association began three years ago, with fifteen mothers communicating to the president and legislators on Mother's Day, asking, as their mothers' day gift, an end to the killing. Six and a half weeks later, close to 200,000 cards reached the President and legislators, asking for peace talks.

The organization is educating women to take an active role in creating peace by establishing dialogue between them and their elected representatives. Monthly news letters are sent all over the country to mothers, uniting behind the pledge, "We who have given life must be dedicated to preserving it."

The annual World Mothers' Day Assembly was held in San Francisco, with 1,500 mothers and fathers and young people present. Mrs. Angie Brooks, president of the United Nations General Assembly, received the Another Mother for Peace Award of the year for her contribution to the role of motherhood. In addition to her two sons, she has reared 47 Liberian boys and girls.

Besides a sobering speech by Bess Myerson, pointing out that 65 cents of each tax dollar goes for war, the mothers signed a "Pax Materna" read by a Vietnamese mother: "On this World Mother's Day, 1970, We join with our sisters in every land in a Pax Materna, a Declaration of Peace to transcend our ideological differences and to prevail throughout any acts of violence between our governments. War is obsolete. We can no longer sustain it by our silence or with the lives of our sons. For now, forever -- There is no mother who is enemy to another mother."

Profile of a Creek

Many people visit Lake Tahoe some-time during the year. On your next visit, look for Taylor Creek. No, it's not a new gambling casino. Taylor Creek is a creek feeding into Lake Tahoe. And in the creek is the Rainbow Pool - Taylor Creek Stream Profile Chamber. Now , we know that sounds exciting, but don't take off for Lake Tahoe until you find out what it is.

The Profile Chamber, built on the edge of Taylor Creek in El Dorado Forest, has been built half underground, so that people can go underwater to get acquainted with the fish. No other such natural - habitat exhibit is believed to exist. Taylor Creek itself is unusual, because although more than 60 other tributaries flow into Lake Tahoe, nine of ten fish that head upstream from the lake choose it as their trysting place. Tens of thousands of trout and salmon make their spawning runs into Taylor Creek every year. Most colorful of all the chamber's "shows" is that of the Kokanee Salmon, which turns a brilliant red during spawning runs in the fall. '

A visit to the Profile Chamber is "just like being in there without a snorkel" and it is worth a short half-mile hike in on the trail on the South Lake Tahoe shore for a visit.

Exhibits and displays , including pictorial aids, identify the various fish. The fish can probably not see inside the Profile Chamber, or they might need some identification aids, too.

HEALTH

Comes first

Part 3.

CORNS AND CALLUSES:

The first evidence of badly fitted shoes appears on the skin - redness or blisters anywhere on the foot indicate friction or pressure, which mean poor fit. Corns and calluses may develop in a person with foot deformity who wears badly fitting shoes. However, in general, preventing corns and calluses is simply a matter of making sure your foot-gear is not causing friction or pressure at any one point and throwing away any pair of shoes that cause trouble. One of the major causes of foot trouble in housewives is wearing old shoes to do house work and saving the comfortable good one for going out. Any housewife knows that she walks miles during the average work day using her feet constantly. So she should make certain that everyday shoes are the most comfortable ones she has - of course, with low heels. And always remember that properly fitting stockings and socks are just as important as properly fitting shoes.

RULES FOR FOOT HEALTH:

Here are some rules for foot health as outlined by the United States Public Health Service:

1. Select shoes and hose that fit properly. Tight shoes cause pressure and shoes that are too large cause friction. The heels of shoes should be kept straight.
 2. Shoes should be well supported through the arch of your foot, particularly for children, whose feet tend to flatten when they stand up.

3. The growing child should be taught the importance of foot cleanliness and how to protect the feet against ill-effects of what may seem to him to be minor injuries.

4. During adult life, foot trouble may be a part of general bodily condition where attention should be directed toward improvement of general health.

5. When standing for long periods, place the feet 2 to 4 inches apart, point them straight ahead and support the weight on the outside of the feet. (When walking, keep the feet parallel and pointed straight ahead.

6. In stepping forward, the weight should fall first on the heel, whereupon the body is carried forward over the foot, weight being applied along the outside of the foot from the heel to the small toe and finally across the forward part to the great toe.

7. The toe nails should be cut straight across and not too short.

8. Frequent cleansing, and careful drying of the feet, together with frequent changes to dry hose and shoes may aid in relieving excessive perspiration.

9. Prompt care of all wounds and blisters on the feet may prevent serious consequences.

10. Fallen arches are the result of weakened leg muscles which allow the main or lengthwise arch in the foot to sag. An orthopedic surgeon should be consulted about this condition, as special treatment is indicated.

11. The feet should be bathed at least once a day with soap and warm water and dried thoroughly.

12. Exercise the feet. The arches may be strengthened by bending the toes.
